

be provided for by a bond issue of not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars or by a special annual tax of not exceeding thirty cents on each one hundred dollars worth of property and ninety cents on each poll. Such election shall be advertised for thirty days preceding the day of election, by posting notices at the court-house door and at three public places in such township. The county commissioners shall appoint a registrar and two poll-holders, and may, in their discretion, order a new registration, and the election shall be held under the laws governing general elections, as nearly as may be. At such election those who favor good roads shall vote a ballot on which shall be printed or written "For Good Roads and Bonds," or a ballot on which shall be printed or written "For Good Roads and Tax," as their purpose may be; and those opposed to good roads shall vote a ballot on which shall be printed or written "Against Good Roads."

Advertisement of election.

Registrar and poll-holders.

Ballots.

SEC. 2. If a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be for good roads and bonds, the said board of commissioners shall issue and sell the bonds of said township, in an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as they shall deem necessary in order to provide funds sufficient for said purpose.

Bond issue ordered.

Amount.

SEC. 3. That if a majority of the votes cast in such election in any township shall be "For Good Roads and Tax," the board of county commissioners shall annually, in the manner and at the time of levying the county taxes, levy a special tax on all persons and property within such township subject to taxation, of not less than ten cents nor more than thirty cents on the one hundred dollars worth of property and not less than thirty nor more than ninety cents on the poll. The taxes so levied shall be collected as other taxes and paid to the county treasurer, and be held by him as the road fund of Township.

Special tax.

Limit of rate.

Collection and settlement.

SEC. 4. That if at said election the combined vote for good roads and bonds and for good roads and tax shall constitute a majority of the votes cast, but not a majority for either bonds or for tax, then the commissioners shall, in that event, call another election to be held in said township, under the same rules and regulations as is provided in section one of this act, to ascertain the will of the people therein as to whether bonds shall be issued or the tax levied, and those favoring the issuance of bonds shall vote a ballot on which shall be printed or written the words "For Bonds" and those in favor of the levy of a direct tax shall vote a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "For Tax"; and if at said election a majority of the votes cast shall be for bonds, then the commissioners shall issue and sell the bonds as provided for in this act; but if a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be "For Tax," then the commissioners shall levy the tax as provided for in this act. At all the elections herein provided for the registrar and poll-holder shall canvass and count the votes

Call for second election.

Ballots.

Effect of election.

Count and return of votes.